

Vintage Tractor Quiz.

1. Which company took over Nuffield tractors?
2. What was Mr Fergusons first name?
3. Who invented the 3-point linkage system?
4. New Holland tractors are the successors to which famous tractor brand?
5. What model of vintage tractor was named after a gem stone?
6. In which country were Fendt tractors originally made?
7. What is one main difference between a MF 35 and a MF 35X?
8. What colour are Belarus tractors?
9. What does JCB stand for?
10. Where did the main Massey Ferguson factory used to be and what was the name of the road it was on?
11. Which flower is featured on a David Brown tractor badge?
12. Which vintage tractor has a boys first name and is always wanting more?
13. If 2 Fordson Major tractors have both their front axles removed and are then joined together, what is the resulting tractor called?
14. In the 1970's what did farmers say that the passenger seat in a Zetor was for?
15. Which tractor make had a Selectamatic range?
16. Which tractor in the 1970's was nicknamed Snoopy?
17. When were Q cabs brought in?
18. What is the engine heating element on a vintage International tractor dash known as?
19. Why did farmers not like the MF35 four-cylinder tractors?
20. What does tractor mean in Latin?

Vintage Tractor Quiz Answers:

1. Leyland
2. Harry
3. Harry Ferguson
4. Ford
5. Zetor Crystal
6. Germany
7. 35X has a diff lock
8. Red/orange
9. Joseph Cyril Bamford
10. Banner lane, Coventry
11. Rose
12. Oliver
13. Triple D or a Doe
14. For the mechanic!
15. David Brown
16. International
17. 1976
18. The pepper pot
19. They were bad starters
20. To pull